

OTH 825: OT ADULT MUSCULOSKELETAL CONDITIONS

Lecture and lab. The course will examine occupational therapy assessments and interventions for clients with musculoskeletal disorders. Emphasis is on impairments and injuries of the upper extremity. Students will also gain an understanding of the use of physical agent modalities as an intervention and adjunctive therapy including assessment for use and contraindications.

Credits: 5

Department: Occupational Therapy