

OTH 921: CAPSTONE PREPARATION 3

This course is the third in the Capstone sequence leading up to the completion of a culminating 14-week experience and related project for the OTD curriculum. The focus of this course is continued student preparation for the proposed experience and project. Students will independently complete a previously determined list of individualized tasks directly related to their Capstone and submit evidence of task completion to the course instructor.

Credits: 1

Department: Occupational Therapy