

PTH 714: PROFESSIONAL ISSUES 1

This course introduces the student to the profession of physical therapy including the history, the professional organizations, and current and future practice trends. Students are also introduced to professional behaviors and expectations, including interprofessional expectations that will be applied throughout the program.

Credits: 1

Department: Physical Therapy