

PTH 802: CLINICAL IMAGING

This course provides an introduction to principles of imaging for the health professional including radiography, CT scans, magnetic resonance imaging, and special studies and arthrography. How findings related to imaging impact clinical decision making for patient/client management will be discussed via case studies.

Credits: 1

Department: Physical Therapy