

REN 500: SHAKESPEARE

This course introduces students to the fundamentals of Shakespeare and/in performance. From the material conditions of early modern theatre-making, to the critical and performance histories that shape Shakespeare's reception today, this course provides a foundation in dramaturgy, theory, and practice. Required for MLitt core; must be taken in first fall term.

Credits: 3

Department: Shakespeare and Performance