

BUAD 200: MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES (W)

Provides an overview of traditional management theory and practice and the growing literature on contemporary management. It also provides the student with opportunities to read about and examine real-life applications. Highlights the principles and practices of sustainable business management from both a strategic perspective and an application-oriented perspective.

Credits: 3

Department: Business