

HIST 226: REGISTER FOR HISP 226

The history and changing philosophy of the preservation movement in America from 1850 to the present. Emphasis is placed on the framework of cultural, economic, legal and governmental factors which define preservation today. Each student completes a project documenting an historical building.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Art222. Also listed as Art 226, ArtM 226, Hist 226.

Department: History