

REN 665: CAREERS IN THE PROFESSIONAL THEATRE

A course focusing on the organization and working conditions of the professional theatre and practical skills for those seeking careers in teaching or the professional theatre: auditioning and interviewing techniques, unions, resume writing, and other skills required to apply. Required for the MFA with an acting concentration.

Credits: 3

Department: Shakespeare and Performance