

CE 281: CIV ENGAGE/SOC ENTREPRENEURISM (C)

By developing leadership and business skills, as well as nurturing compassion and a willingness to work for social, economic and environmental justice, this course empowers students with a few of the tools to manage organizations that serve others, provide jobs, build local wealth, and contribute broadly to economic and community development.

Credits: 3

Department: Civic Engagement