

Women's Studies (Minor)

The Women's Studies Minor is no longer accepting new students.

Women's Studies is a minor program at Mary Baldwin University. Students wishing to major in Women's Studies may talk to their advisors or the director about designing an independent major in Women's Studies.

Rotating topics courses and colloquia considered on individual basis.

Civic Engagement Opportunities

Co-curricular civic engagement opportunities are available to WS minors through a variety of women-focused community service organizations in the Staunton area. Students may also arrange service-based internships in the field. Consult the director or the Spencer Center for more information.
