

NUR 848: ADV PRACTICE NURSING: AG-ACNP II

Explores, at the advanced level, the complex pathophysiology, assessment, diagnosis, and collaborative management of the entire adult population experiencing acute and critical illness. Emphasis on thorough assessment, physical and mental health exam, differential diagnosis, diagnostic reasoning and plan of care for the adult or geriatric patient with multiple chronic conditions with a focus on interprofessional collaboration. Advocate for the role of the patient and the advanced practice nurse as a member of the health care team.

Credits: 4

Prerequisites:

NUR 844

Department: Nursing