NUR 870: ANESTHESIOLOGY SIMULATION LAB I

Provides the student practical experience with basic principles of anesthesia through high fidelity patient simulation. Develops problem solving and decision-making skills during all phases of anesthetic management by participating in case preparation, discussions, and actual management of selected case scenarios followed by a review and discussion of performance.

Credits: 1
Prerequisites:
NUR 700 Advanced Physiology and Pathophysiology; NUR 705 Advanced Physiology and Pathophysiology; NUR 874 Pharmacology in Anesthesia Practice I; NUR 867 Chemistry and Physics for Nurse Anesthesiology
Department: Nursing