

NUR 872: ANESTHESIOLOGY SIMULATION LAB II

Provides the student practical experience associated with those concepts presented. Content includes advanced airway management, anesthesia crisis resource management, pediatric and obstetric anesthesia management, spinal, epidural, arterial line placement, and central venous line placement. The students will participate in case preparation, discussions, and actual management of selected case scenarios followed by a review and discussion on performance.

Credits: 1

Prerequisites:

NUR 700 Advanced Physiology and Pathophysiology I; NUR 705 Advanced Physiology and Pathophysiology II; NUR 874 Pharmacology in Anesthesia Practice I; NUR 867 Chemistry and Physics for Nurse Anesthesiology; NUR 870 Anesthesiology Simulation Lab I

Department: Nursing