

NUR 875: PHARMA IN ANESTHESIOLOGY PRACT II

In this course students will examine the pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics, and corresponding physiology of drugs that are administered during the delivery of anesthetic care. Drugs used in the promotion and maintenance of health in all physiologic systems and their effects on delivery of anesthesia will be examined.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

NUR 704 Advanced Pharmacology and Therapeutics, NUR 874 Pharmacology in Anesthesiology Practice I

Department: Nursing