

HSCI 250: DIVERSITY IN HEALTHCARE

This course introduces learners to the concepts of culture, race, ethnicity, and related capacities in the U.S. health care system. Content includes practical guidelines for incorporating cultural understanding in health settings, resources and capacities assessment, and public policy related race and ethnicity in healthcare. Learners will develop skills in health literacy, cultural competency, and an appreciation for diversity and inclusion in healthcare delivery.

Credits: 3

Department: Health Sciences