

BUAD 560: MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING & FINANCE

The course introduces the student to key concepts, issues, tools, and vocabulary used by healthcare administrators. This includes understanding of key financial and managerial accounting tools and concepts to healthcare problems through development of healthcare financial statements, recording of transactions, financial statement analysis, third party payors, full costing, differential costing, capital investments, debt and equity financing, operational and capital budgeting, and responsibility accounting.

Credits: 3

Department: Business