

ECON 314: INTERNATIONAL FINANCE (I)

This course examines the finance of international trade and investment and the channels and institutions of world capital flows. Focus will be on models of exchange rate systems, open economy macroeconomic theory, international policy coordination, the roles of the IMF and the World Bank, and the management of international debt. Students follow international macroeconomic and financial events and discuss current policy issues.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ECON 101 and ECON 102.

Department: Economics