

OTH 819: COMMUNITY PRACTICUM 2

In this course, students will continue the work initiated in Community Practicum 1 and focus on implementation of the community project that produces positive health & wellness outcomes in collaboration with the partner agency. While gaining experience in the specialty role of community-based provider, students will also gain experience in collecting outcomes, project management, and disseminating results of a project.

Credits: 1

Department: Occupational Therapy