

ENG 204: CHILDREN'S/YOUNG ADULT LIT (WH)

An overview of the literary and historical development of literature for children and young adults through selected authors and genres, both classic and contemporary. Students analyze literary elements, discuss cultural and educational issues within the genre, and consider the development of the concept of childhood and literacy in a variety of contexts.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ENG 102

Department: English