

ENG 208: BRITISH LITERATURE BEFORE 1780 (HW)

Works of major British writers from the Anglo-Saxons to 1780. Students will learn about genre, contexts, and critical approaches to literary texts; they will also consider how the English language has evolved over time. Classroom discussion will develop oral presentation skills, and the term papers (which students are encouraged to revise) will develop writing skills.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ENG 102

Department: English