

MKTC 262: MARKETING ETHICS

This course provides information on current ethical marketing practices for students to analyze, apply and reinforce. Students will also learn to create social media policy, protect intellectual property, and work with stakeholders to ensure compliance. The course includes case studies for students to work through real-world situations.

Credits: 3

Department: Marketing Communication