

HPUB 387: DEPARTMENTAL INTERNSHIP

Internships consist of 150 hours of practice in such areas as cultural resource management, cultural tourism research, curatorial services and material culture, digital history, educational programming, exhibit design, historical interpretation, and management of archives. In addition to their other activities, students keep a journal of their work experiences. Students may work at a variety of approved organizations in Staunton or elsewhere.

Credits: 3

Department: History