

INT 230: HISTORY AND THEORIES OF LEADERSHIP

Students develop a broad understanding of the practice and process of leadership by enhancing knowledge and application of leadership theories, styles, attributes and skills; as well as by exploring the factors that influence effective leadership including gender, race, power, culture, and ethics. Additionally, they view leadership through the lenses of various disciplines in the social sciences. This course is required for all students seeking a minor in leadership studies including all students in the Virginia Women's Institute for Leadership. Taught each academic year.
