

PHIL 102: INTRODUCTION TO ETHICS (H)

Provides theoretical tools for ethical decision-making; examines basic concepts of ethical decision-making and several theories including those of Plato, Aristotle, Kant, Mill and Bentham. Application is made to contemporary moral issues.

Credits: 3

Department: Philosophy and Religious Studies