

PHYS 400: SENIOR RESEARCH I (M)

Seminar and independent research leading to the completion of a thesis required of majors in the senior year. The student, under supervision of faculty members, experiences research as it is carried out in practical situations and presents findings orally and in writing. Satisfactory completion of the research project and the oral defense of the thesis fulfill the senior requirement for physics majors.

Credits: 2

Department: Physics