

PSYC 360: HISTORY AND SYSTEMS OF PSYCHOLOGY

This course for senior psychology majors examines the historical antecedents of contemporary psychology and the major systems of psychology. Emphasis is placed on the historical development leading to currently held positions on topic areas including development, learning, motivation, sensation, perception, and cognition.

Credits: 3

Department: Psychology