

SOWK 251: CHILD WELFARE SERVICES

Study of adoption, foster care, child care protective services, juvenile court, and other child welfare services for children in need of protection. We study the well-being of children and attitudes and values that define parents' and society's responsibilities to children.

Credits: 3

Department: Social Work