

SOWK 365: SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE II

Assists students in developing knowledge and skills to work with families and groups. Experiential techniques are employed to aid in integration of theory and practice. Many of the videotapes, class exercises, case studies, and role plays focus on the many implications of cultural diversity and include application to vulnerable populations.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

SOWK 355.

Department: Social Work