

SOWK 375: SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE III

Assists students in developing the knowledge base necessary for understanding the contemporary American community, its structure, politics, its growth and/or decline, and roles and functions of various human service agencies and organizations within the community. Additional focus on how people can empower themselves for the purpose of improving the overall quality of life in communities.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

SOWK 365.

Department: Social Work