

WS 240: GENDER AND POPULAR CULTURE (GW)

This course explores the cultural and social meanings of gender, and the intersections of gender with race and class, as seen through American popular culture. It investigates the popular images and stories that shape gendered/sexual identities as well as a variety of theories and methods used in contemporary gender scholarship.

Credits: 3

Department: Women's Studies