

BIOL 100: THE LIVING WORLD (NR)

This is a course for non-majors. Students will seek answers to several questions: What should I eat? Why do we run? What do our genes do? How does what we do impact other species? This course will examine these themes through readings, videos, discussions, and oral presentations.

Credits: 3

Department: Biology