

Moral and Ethical Responsibility

Graduate students may not engage in behavior or actions that endanger themselves or others, either while on MBU property or while engaged in a program or activity connected with the college and/or its programs. Students are required to comply with professional standards of schools in which they engage in practicum or research, interning, student teaching, or other activities connected with the college and/or its programs.