

PTH 804: INTRODUCTION TO NEUROSCIENCE

This course provides students with didactic information about the anatomy and physiology of the central, peripheral, and autonomic nervous systems. It relates the anatomy and physiology of the nervous systems to principles that govern motor control, motor learning, neuroplasticity, and pain science. Additionally, this course teaches examination and evaluation of these systems.

Credits: 3

Department: Physical Therapy