

REN 551: SHAKESPEARE PEDAGOGY

This course focuses on ways to teach dramatic literature, particularly Shakespeare, through performance in class. Students learn how to turn a classroom into a laboratory for the exploration of a play. The course offers future teachers both theoretical and practical knowledge of how students learn through their own performance and that of others. Required for MLitt core. Offered annually in spring terms.

Credits: 3

Department: Shakespeare and Performance