

SOWK 153: INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL WORK

Explores career opportunities in social work. Special emphasis on the profession as it relates to practice with children, families, and other persons who experience problems with adjustment to their social environment. Participants will study philosophies, values, and attitudes that form a base for professional practice.

Credits: 3

Department: Social Work